ARTIST BIO:

SITARA grew up in the vibrant world of hippie communes across Europe and India, traveling the globe before finally settling in Cologne, Germany. Writing songs has been her lifeline since her teenage years, and she channels her creativity through music, videos and visual art.

Today, SITARA is a multifaceted talent - producer, artist, mother, networker and free spirit - who loves crafting musical gems.

Her journey as a releasing artist began in 2021 with her first singles, followed by the EP "Marathon Girl" in 2023 and more singles in 2024, including the highly rated song "Chase the Moment." Collaborating with other producers and DJs, Sitara blends electronic and indie sounds, creating a unique musical experience with her smooth voice and dreamlike lyrics.

"What I often miss in life is sensuality. I don't want to just talk; I want to feel. Do I always need to make philosophical or socially relevant statements to justify going public? For me, it's about the joy of feeling the music and sharing those vibes."

On stage SITARA ´s Vocal performance is supported by Electronics, Electric Guitar and Bass.

About „Surrender“

“Sensual trip-hop sound comes from Cologne today...”

With her new, insistent song "Surrender", SITARA takes us on a distant journey and yet we stay with ourselves for the time being. It is a rousing invitation to surrender to the moment.

"Sinnlicher Trip-Hop Sound kommt heute aus Koeln..."

Mit ihrem neuen, durchdringenden Song „Surrender“ nimmt uns SITARA mit auf eine ferne Reise und doch bleiben wir gegenwärtig bei uns. Er ist eine mitreißende Einladung, sich dem Moment hinzugeben.

MUSIKBLOG Sept. 2023

About „Marathon Girl“

Indietronic - Artist Sitara releases "Marathon Girl", a dark, electronic EP today - with which the Cologne native celebrates her musical debut.

The seven songs on "Marathon Girl" literally invite you to leave everyday life behind on the dance floor and dive into the extraterrestrial Sitara world.

The music feels as if it comes from a dreamland, in which everything is experienced a bit darker and more intensely and in which any emotions, no matter how confused they may be, can be given space.

Indietronic - Künstlerin Sitara veröffentlicht mit „Marathon Girl“ heute eine düstere, elektronische EP – mit der die Kölnerin ihr musikalisches Debüt feiert.

... Denn die sieben Songs auf „Marathon Girl“ laden förmlich dazu ein, auf der Tanzfläche nach Lust und Laune den Alltag hinter sich zu lassen und in die außerirdische Sitara-Welt abzutauchen.

Die Musik fühlt sich an, als stamme sie aus einer Traumwelt, in der alles eine Spur düsterer und intensiver erlebt wird und in der jeglichen Emotionen, so wirr sie auch sein mögen, Raum gegeben werden kann.

ELECTRONIC GROOVE March 2024

About „Chase the Moment“

‘Chase The Moment’ encourages listeners to embrace the rhythm and participate in life’s impromptu dance. It’s a metaphor for living fully in the present, appreciating the current moment and its possibilities. Drawing inspiration from early 90s’ Goa/Techno parties, the song communicates a sense of unity and shared enjoyment of sound and rhythm.

Sitara discusses her inspiration from the repeating pattern of dance and life. Despite challenges in her art, the concept of a ring parabola provided comfort, symbolizing continual opportunities to realize dreams.
